Welcome to the Zoological Society of London Library, containing a unique collection of zoological journals and books.

The Library is open from 9.30am to 5.30pm Monday to Friday.

The Library is closed on all public holidays and at weekends.

Student Fellows must show their membership cards and sign in at the Library desk on arrival. All briefcases and bags must be left at the front desk for security reasons. Photography and filming are not allowed.

Mobile telephones and audible pagers must be switched off or put on silent mode before entering the Reading Room and must remain off while in the Reading Room. Mobile telephones must not be used for making or receiving calls whilst in the Reading Room.

Student Fellows can use the Library and borrow up to two books at a time on production of their membership cards.

Most books in the Library are available for loan except for the reference works, books published before 1940, manuscripts, drawings and prints.

Borrowers are personally responsible for the loss of, or damage to, any volume or other item while it is on loan from the Library. No book may be taken or sent to any place outside the United Kingdom. Please do not pass loaned items to another individual.

Books may be taken out for two months at a time and may be renewed in person, by email: library@zsl.org or over the telephone if not required by another reader. Overdue items will incur a fine; (per item – 5p per day up to £20 or the replacement cost if greater).

When an item on loan is required by another Library user, a recall note will be sent out. Fining will commence if the book is not returned within 14 days of the date recorded on the recall note.

Application to consult rare books and art works should be made in advance with the Librarian. Rare books and art works may be consulted only at the large table near the desk of the Library staff on duty. If the user wishes to make notes when consulting a rare book, pencils must be used. Biro or ink pens must not be used.

A postal loan service is also offered. Books and journals for postal loan can be requested over the telephone by fax, letter or by email. In order to facilitate the above service the borrower's full name and membership number need to be quoted. The borrower is expected to acknowledge receipt immediately and will be invoiced for postage. Postal loans are sent by Special delivery which takes two days and costs about £5.

Works not held in the ZSL Library can often be borrowed from or photocopied by another library. There is a charge for this service, please contact the Library for details

Student Fellows should not return books or journals to the shelves but place them on the trolley situated at the side of the Library desk.

Do not over-reach when trying to obtain books from high shelves. Please ask for assistance when needed. Take care when using the kick-steps. Do not attempt to carry too many books at one time.

Student Fellows are welcome to retrieve items for themselves from the Library Basement or Ground Floor (please do not go downstairs after 5.15pm). However, must not go down there without first having been shown around by a member of the Library staff who will point out the emergency exits etc.

Please inform the Duty Librarian when you go to the Basement or Ground Floor and when you again return to the Reading Room.

Take care when using the rolling shelves; ensure no-one is using the same sequence of shelves at the same time. Do not try to move too many shelves at one time. Please do not over-reach or try to carry too much.

If you prefer, items can be fetched by Library staff. This service is only available from 9.30am - 12pm and 2pm - 4pm.

Readers must not use their own discs, CD-ROMs or software in any of the Library's computers.

Laptop computers may be used in the Library. ZSL reserves the right to undertake safety checks of readers' machines at any time. Wifi is available for use in the Reading Room, please ask the Duty Librarian for the weekly password.

ZSL accepts no liability for the loss of, or damage to, Visitors' personal property or equipment, howsoever caused.

Please remember that smoking and eating are not permitted in the Library. Drinking from lidded containers is permitted on the Library balcony.

Please be considerate towards other Library visitors.

Library staff will be pleased to help users with advice or practical assistance whenever possible.

THE ZSL ARCHIVE

ZSL has an archive of materials relating to its history, located within the Library. These may be consulted by Library Users, however an appointment must be made in advance. Please contact the Archivist, Michael Palmer, by email: Michael.Palmer@zsl.org or by post at the above address.

Please refer to our regulations for 'Special Collections' if you wish to consult Archives, art works or images.

Document supply and copying services

ZSL Library provides a copying service for non-commercial purposes. All copying must comply with the 1988 Copyright, Designs and Patents Act, i.e. you may only copy one article from any journal issue or one chapter or five per cent of any book.

Self-service scanning

The Library provides a colour book scanner that creates pdf files. To use the scanner, Library users can purchase a memory stick from Library staff for £4.00, or are welcome to bring their own. Library visitors may also use personal cameras or phones to take photographs of pages of books and journals, providing they adhere to copyright regulations and do not use a flash.

Document supply/remote scanning service

ZSL Library also offers a remote scanning service for users who cannot visit the Library. The charge for this service is 30 pence per page; although there is a minimum charge of £5.00 (the minimum charge is not applicable to ZSL Fellows)

To request scans, please email library@zsl.org or call us on 020 7449 6293 and provide full bibliographic details of items you are requesting. If the item is available we will send you a copyright declaration form, and once returned to us the scans will be sent shortly after with details of payment methods.

Finally, may we remind you that this is your Library. It is up to you to get the best out of it. Please let us know if there are any particular improvements or developments you would like to see.
