

Establishing a Career in Conservation Science: a ZSL Early Career Event

24 April 2018, Mappin Pavilion, ZSL London Zoo, Regent's Park, London NW1 4RY

Programme

9.30–10.00	Registration
10.00–10.10	Welcome and introductions
10.10–11.00	Workshop Session 1 (Careers inside academia; Careers outside academia; Raising your profile/media skills)
11.00–11.20	Coffee/tea
11.20–11.40	Presentation: Funding opportunities for early career researchers
11.40–12.30	Workshop session 2 (Careers inside academia; Careers outside academia; Raising your profile/media skills)
12.30–1.10	Lunch
1.10–1.30	Presentations: Careers in conservation Dr Mike Hoffmann, Head of Global Programmes, ZSL; Katherine Secoy, Senior Policy Advisor, ZSL; Dr Monika Böhm, PDRA, ZSL
1.30–2.00	Presentation: Overview of careers in conservation: what are the employment opportunities? Dr Nick Askew, Director, Conservation Careers
2.00–2.50	Workshop session 2 (Careers inside academia; Careers outside academia; Raising your profile/media skills)
2.50–3.10	Coffee
3.10–4.00	Scientific writing and Q&A
4.00	End

Facilitators

Dr Nathalie Pettorelli, Senior Research Fellow, Institute of Zoology, Zoological Society of London

Dr Nick Askew, Director, Conservation Careers

Dr Monika Böhm, Post Doctoral Research Assistant, Institute of Zoology, Zoological Society of London

Linda DaVolls, Head of Scientific Publications and Events, Zoological Society of London

Tom Jennings, Senior Press Officer, Zoological Society of London

For the most conservation jobs, see Conservation Careers

