ZSL Stamford Raffles Award Winners

2017  Paul Brock
      for outstanding contributions to entomology

2016  Malcolm Tait
      for outstanding contributions to the public appreciation of wildlife

2015  Nick Tregenza
      for outstanding contributions to acoustic monitoring of cetaceans

2014  Elise Andrew for significant contributions to science communication

2013  David Mallon
      for significant contributions to antelope conservation

2012  Stephen Petty for significant long-term monitoring and data collection that has contributed to our understanding of the ecology of tawny owl populations, their vole prey and other raptors

2011  Dan Danahar
      for contributions towards the advancement of biodiversity education

2010  Richard Lewington
      for contributions for wildlife illustration

2009  Bob Swann
      for contributions to ornithology

2007  Ted Benton
      for contributions to our knowledge on bees, butterflies and dragonflies

2006  Peter Chandler
      for contributions to our knowledge of European diptera

2005  Peter Grubb
      for contributions to mammalian systematics 2003 Christopher du Feu
for contributions to ornithology

2002 Thomas Jones Roberts
for furthering our understanding of wildlife in Pakistan

2001 Norman Moore
for research on the ecology and behaviour of dragonflies

1999 Edward Max Nicholson for life-long contributions to conservation

1998 Clive Carefoot
for outstanding research on plumage genetics

1996 Norma Chapman
for outstanding contribution to the knowledge of deer in Britain

1994 J Hall-Crags
for long-standing contributions to the description of bird song

1993 W R P Bourne
for contribution to the study of seabirds

1992 J D Summers-Smith
for world-renowned work on sparrows

1990 D L Harrison
for distinguished contribution to the study of mammals

1989 Major K W England
for contribution to the taxonomy of tropical sea-anemones

1988 W F H Ansell
for contribution to knowledge of the taxonomy and distribution of African mammals

1987 Fiona Guiness
for contributions to research on red deer in the British Isles

1985 A F Millidge
for distinguished contributions to arachnology

1984 W J Le Quesne
for distinguished contribution to the taxonomy and biology of Hemiptera 1983  Major W D Gallagher
   for contributions to the ornithology of Arabia

1982  R M Gambles
   for distinguished work on Odonata

1981  Lt.-Col. A M Emmet
   for work on Microlepidoptera

1980  E H Eason
   for distinguished work on the taxonomy of centipedes

1979  S.M. Turk
   for contributions to the study of seahorse life and marine molluscs

1978  Jonathan Kingdon
   for contributions to the study of East African mammals

1977  Stanley Cramp
   for contributions to ornithology

1975  Lieutenant-Colonel J.N. Eliot for distinguished taxonomic work on Lepidoptera, particularly the family Lycaenidae

1974  A.E. Ellis
   for contributions to the study of molluscs

1973  G.H. Locket
   for contributions to arachnology

1972  L.G. Higgins
   for outstanding contributions to knowledge of Lepidoptera

1971  B.P. Hall
   for work on the taxonomy and zoogeography of African birds

1970  D.R. Rosevear in recognition of contributions to knowledge of West African mammalian fauna

1969  R.A. Jubb
   for contributions to southern African ichthyology

1968  Guy Mountfort
   for his contributions to the study of natural history 1967  Maxwell Savage
for contributions to knowledge of the amphibians

1966  The Reverent E.A. Armstrong
for contributions to ornithology

1965  Ernest Neal
for contributions to mammalogy and entomology

1964  C.W. Wright
for contributions to palaeontology

1963  Cyril Winthrop Mackworth Praed
for contributions to ornithology

1962  R.E. Moreau
for contributions to ornithology

1961  W.S. Bristowe
for contributions to arachnology